LOCAL PEOPLE, LOCAL JOBS

At IntoJobs, our focus is local people, local jobs.

Our people live and work in their local community and have a deep understanding of the labour market, opportunities and challenges faced by local businesses. Our insights and expertise enable us to deliver tailored employment and workforce solutions to employers across the Territory.

"Ours is not a cookie cutter approach," IntoJobs CEO Steve Wyborn said.

"We work with each employer to understand what they need to build a reliable and skilled workforce, and how we can help them achieve that."

This approach extends to when we're working with people seeking employment.

"We believe there is a job for everyone and we're here to help people find sustainable and fulfilling employment. We work with participants to identify their goals, upskill or reskill, connect them with any additional support services if needed, and match them with suitable employers."

The IntoJobs team is regularly on the road providing support whenever and wherever you need us. Because of this, we're able to visit the workplace, understand the role and the working environment requirements to ensure we match the right person to your business.

Plus we go the extra mile. If a candidate needs assistance to get to an interview or to plan their transport for a new role, we'll help get them there – making the transition seamless for everyone.

"When your new employee starts work, our post-placement support is similarly tailored. We are there for both the employer and their new employee. If there's a need for further training or equipment, a change in circumstance that requires support, anything else – we're there"

And while IntoJobs has a local focus, we have the backing of the not for profit IntoWork Group, a leading national provider of employment, skills & education, and support services that enable educational, economic and social participation.

Leveraging the collective 40 years' experience of the IntoWork Group, IntoJobs delivers employment and career transition services across Australia, supporting people and businesses into secure jobs and sustainable futures.

A MESSAGE FROM THE GTNT GROUP CEO

Thank you for joining us to celebrate the achievements of our incredible apprentices, trainees, supervisors, and business partners. I would like to extend a warm welcome to everyone joining us with a special appreciation for all those who have traveled far and wide to be here with us tonight.

GTNT Group is celebrating 34 years of supporting Territorian's working to achieve their personal and employment goals. We have a dedicated team that are committed to helping our wonderful Host Businesses flourish and support each and every apprentice and trainee to succeed in their chosen field. Our team are so excited to share our amazing finalists with you; we think they're pretty great.

Tonight is kindly supported by our generous sponsors, GTNT Group is delighted to have been able to partner with you all to bring this incredible night to fruition and I would like to thank you for your ongoing collaboration; tonight would not be possible without your generosity. I would also like to recognise our judges, to whom I extend my sincere gratitude for dedicating their time and expertise to assess the nominations and select our amazing finalists.

The GTNT Group Awards are held to highlight the outstanding accomplishments being achieved across the NT in vocational education and training. The GTNT Group Awards is just a taste of what can be achieved, and I'm confident our finalists will go on to accomplish bigger and better things. For some of you, tonight will be just the beginning of your journey as a leader within your industry and as an advocate for the apprenticeship system, influencing many future apprentices and trainees to reach for their own career goals.

Lastly, to all the finalists this evening, you have already achieved award winning results and demonstrated the qualities that show you are the future leaders of the Territory. You should be immensely proud of yourselves and your achievements thus far, there are bright futures ahead for you all and we hope that GTNT Group has been a small part of your success stories.

Onwards and upwards,

PRELUDE FLNG JOINT VENTURE

THE FINALISTS ARE

JACK HIGGINS | Certificate III in Electrotechnology Electrician

Host Business: AJF Electrical | RTO: CDU

Jack Higgins was unsure about his career path after finishing high school Jack applied for the Shell Prelude to the Future program and was thrilled to be accepted. During the program, Jack gained valuable knowledge and practical experience and through the program discovered his passion for the electrical industry. After completing Jack continued to pursue an electrical apprenticeship. Working in the industry has been rewarding for Jack as it has provided the opportunity to see more of the Territory including remote trips to Elcho Island and Bathurst Island. He has learned valuable life lessons and believes that “learning a trade is like building a house - it takes time and focus to achieve something extraordinary.”

RANTY LABASI | Certificate III in Electrotechnology Electrician

Host Business: Nilsen (NT) Pty Ltd | RTO: CDU

Ranty Labasi chose an electrical apprenticeship to gain industry experience and skills that would allow her to be a role model for others and especially for her two kids. Ranty grows more confident and competent with every job she completes and hopes to inspire more women to join the trade. In a testament to Ranty’s excellence she was chosen as a Prelude to the Future Program 5 Leader. In addition to this Ranty took home the 2022 GTNT Group Prelude to the Future Most Outstanding Shell Apprentice Award and was a finalist in the 2022 Master Builders NT EBC Awards. This recognition motivates her to continue working towards becoming a qualified electrician. Ranty’s goal is to work on large renewable energy projects in the future.

ELISHA WRIGHT | Certificate III in Certificate III in Engineering - Mechanical Trade | Host Business: Territory Generation | RTO: CDU

Elisha Wright is a fourth-year mechanical engineering apprentice, assisting tradespeople with general maintenance, breakdowns, and shutdowns. Her passion for mechanics comes from watching her father and grandfather work as heavy diesel mechanics. Elisha loves taking things apart and putting them back together, which fuels her passion for the industry. Territory Generation offers a positive workplace with supportive colleagues who have assisted Elisha in gaining the necessary skills and knowledge. Elisha is a Prelude to the Future Program 4 Leader and a committee member for NAWIC NT. Elisha encourages others and especially women to join the industry, as there is nothing to lose but so much to gain.

MOST OUTSTANDING APPRENTICE - STAGE 1

This award is presented to a First Year Apprentice who has performed exceptionally well in all aspects of their training.

THE FINALISTS ARE

CODY HODGINS | Certificate III in Heavy Commercial Vehicle Mechanical Technology | Host Business: RK Diesel Services | RTO: CDU
Cody Hodgins commenced a school-based electrical apprenticeship before changing gears and switching full-time to a Heavy Diesel Mechanic apprenticeship at RK Diesel Services. Cody found his passion for mechanics growing up around cars and motorsports. He recently built his own buggy for the Finke Desert Race. The apprenticeship highlights for Cody were working on new machinery and becoming more involved in the motorsports community by volunteering at the Alice Springs Inland dragway. Cody strives for quality in his work and aims to meet his supervisors' expectations. He is grateful for the support of his supervisors and looks forward to continuing to grow his skill set.

GEORGENA JAMES | Certificate III in Electrotechnology Electrician Host Business: Power Water Corporation | RTO: CDU
Georgena James aspired to gain an opportunity that would allow her to get hands-on experience while completing a qualification. She kept looking for an opportunity to pursue an apprenticeship pathway. Georgena commenced her electrical apprenticeship with Power Water Corporation in 2021. She finds her role fulfilling by being able to provide essential services to the people of the Northern Territory, in both the town centres and rural communities. Georgena encourages females to pursue trade apprenticeships and join her and the many other amazing women working in the electrical industry.

PATRICK LUCCHESI | Certificate III in ESI – Power Systems - Distribution Overhead | Host Business: Power Water Corporation RTO: Energy Skills Solutions
Patrick Lucchese has a passion for the electrical industry and enjoys the fast-paced and challenging environment it offers. With previous experience in the telecommunications industry, Patrick pursued a career as a Linesman to gain new skills and develop his existing skillset. Patrick enjoys attending emergency call-outs, where the support of the his supervisors has been invaluable in ensuring jobs are completed safely and quickly. With a small class size at Energy Skills Solutions in Perth, Patrick appreciates the one-on-one time with the lecturers. Patrick believes in having a go, staying motivated, and utilising support services when needed. Patrick considers his apprenticeship the best thing he has ever done.

BENJAMIN PEREZ | Certificate III in Light Vehicle Mechanical Technology | Host Business: Bridge Toyota | RTO: CDU
Benjamin Perez pursued his mechanical apprenticeship because of his long-standing passion for motors. Being inspired by his partner's father, who is a mechanic in Darwin, Benjamin saw this apprenticeship as an opportunity to gain the knowledge and skills needed to succeed. The biggest benefit for Benjamin during his time with Bridge Toyota has been the family-like environment. From his first day, the team has supported him in gaining the confidence and skills needed to work on vehicles to Toyota's high standards. Benjamin has come a long way, from initially being hesitant and uncertain to now being able to run express bays and confidently work on repairs.

MOST OUTSTANDING APPRENTICE - STAGE 2

This award is presented to a Second Year Apprentice who has performed exceptionally well in all aspects of their training.

THE FINALISTS ARE

ABBE AYRES | Certificate III in Electrotechnology Electrician Host Business: South32-GEMCO | RTO: CDU

Abbe Ayers applied for an electrical apprenticeship to gain practical skills she could use both in the workplace and around home. Abbe values the academic aspect combined with the practical and hands-on work of an apprenticeship. Abbe enjoys the diverse variety within the electrical industry with different avenues to specialise in and always having opportunities to further her studies and career once qualified. During her apprenticeship, Abbe progressed quickly, becoming confident enough to put ideas forward, work with instrumentation and undertake shift work. Being selected as a finalist for the 2022 Master Builders NT EBC Awards further encouraged Abbe to continue with her passion in the electrical industry.

RAYMOND AQUINO | Certificate III in Light Vehicle Mechanical Technology | Host Business: Bridge Toyota | RTO: CDU

Raymond Aquino chose to complete an apprenticeship as a Light Vehicle Mechanic to secure a better life for himself and his family. Raymond values the organised practical and theoretical training that allows him to gain both workplace experience and knowledge to build confidence in his trade. Raymond has received recognition for his hard work, earning two awards so far in his apprenticeship. Raymond values the networking opportunities, the support from his employer and peers, and the benefits of learning "on the job." His passion for the motor vehicle industry keeps him focused, motivated and willing to put in the work to achieve his goals.

THOMAS NORRIS | Certificate III in Engineering – Fabrication Trade Host Business: Darwin Port | RTO: CDU

Thomas Norris is a positive role model to the young Indigenous community and believes that maintaining qualities such as collaboration, eagerness to learn, effective listening, and time management are essential to succeed in his apprenticeship. Thomas recognises the progress he has made in his career, building meaningful relationships, achieving many goals, and acquiring relevant skills and knowledge in his trade. Thomas credits the Clontarf Foundation for guiding him throughout his employment at Darwin Port and encouraging him to pursue an apprenticeship after graduating from Palmerston Senior College. As an apprentice, Thomas inspires young Indigenous men during employment forums, advocating for them, and helping everyone to strive for success.

EVANGELENE RUSHFORTH | Certificate III in Engineering - Mechanical Trade | Host Business: South32-GEMCO | RTO: CDU

Evangelene Rushforth is thrilled to have a strong grasp of her role and to be able to take on more responsibility at work in her second year. Evangelene is grateful to her Host Business for providing a positive and inclusive workplace, which has been transformative for her mental health. Evangelene is open about her mental health struggles and finds that many people can relate. She believes that trade work for women can be very empowering and after initially doubting her capability to handle heavy work. She now has a new found confidence in herself, her limits and abilities which has been really empowering.

MOST OUTSTANDING APPRENTICE - STAGE 3

This award is presented to a Third Year Apprentice who has performed exceptionally well in all aspects of their training.

THE FINALISTS ARE

JULIAN COBURN | Certificate III in Electrotechnology Electrician

Host Business: Nilsen (NT) Pty Ltd | RTO: CDU

Julian Coburn lost his job in the aviation industry in 2020 due to Covid-19 and struggled with a lack of direction. Julian decided to explore a career change and pursued a trade qualification in the electrical industry. Julian's passion for learning and increasing his knowledge and skills motivated him throughout his apprenticeship, which has been recognised with several awards including the 2022 GTNT Group Most Outstanding Apprentice - Stage 2 and at the 2022 Master Builders NT EBC Awards. Julian believes that showing initiative is crucial for apprentices but also emphasises the importance of following the directions of his supervisors. Julian takes pride in his achievements and feels grateful to have found a fulfilling career path.

ELIJAH COOMBES | Certificate III in Data and Voice Communication

Host Business: Nilsen (NT) Pty Ltd | RTO: TAFE Qld

Elijah Coombes was a recent Year 12 graduate who was working part-time and considered his future career path. He was interested in obtaining a trade in the electrical industry and was intrigued by GTNT Group's reputation for supporting apprentices in training. Elijah applied and was successful in securing the position. This opportunity has changed his life and while at times it can be challenging he has found the work enjoyable and rewarding. Elijah's personal qualities of being a quick learner, easy going, showing initiative, having a sense of humor, being a team player, and persevering through challenges have helped him succeed in his apprenticeship.

ALEX HOLTON | Certificate III in Light Vehicle Mechanical Technology

Host Business: Bridge Toyota | RTO: CDU

Alex Holton chose to pursue an apprenticeship to develop his knowledge of the automotive industry and gain experience he could use in his personal life as well. He finds the apprenticeship pathway to be a great way to be hands-on, learn, and earn at the same time. As the only third-year apprentice in Bridge Toyota's Darwin workshop, Alex has been given the opportunity to support the first and second-year apprentices. This experience has improved his attention to detail and ability to explain each step of the job to others. Alex believes that the apprenticeship pathway provides many benefits, including workplace exposure, mentorship, and support for studying.

ELISHA WRIGHT | Certificate III in Engineering - Mechanical Trade | Host Business: Territory Generation | RTO: CDU

Elisha Wright is a fourth-year mechanical engineering apprentice, assisting tradespeople with general maintenance, breakdowns, and shutdowns. Her passion for mechanics comes from watching her father and grandfather work as heavy diesel mechanics. THE FINALISTS ARE

LIEN BUI | NTG - Department of Corporate and Digital Development

As an experienced professional with nine years in various roles within the Northern Territory Government, Lien Bui has demonstrated exceptional leadership skills in supervising and mentoring trainees and two vacation students. With a Bachelor's degree in Information Technology and Commerce, specialising in Information Systems and Accounting, Lien focuses on clear communication, identifying strengths and areas for development, and providing guidance and support to her trainees. Her approach has significantly improved the productivity, work output, and personal goals of her trainees, who have acquired valuable technical, communication, and collaboration skills applicable to both their school and work commitments.

LUKE HARVEY | Bridge Toyota

Luke Harvey joined Bridge Toyota as a first-year apprentice in 2001 and has since worked his way up to become the Assistant Service Manager, Apprentice Mentor, and head of the Darwin technical team. As a strong team player, he advocates for achieving the best results through continuous training and mentoring. With the highest technical level in Toyota Training, he is a constant supporter of training in the workplace. As the apprentice mentor, Luke designs individual training plans that match the progress of each apprentice in the workshop. Luke is responsible for overseeing all post-trade technical training and development for 12 apprentices and 24 technicians. He also heads up the recruitment of new apprentices each year to ensure the right fit for the best outcome.

TOM LOVERIDGE | TL Metalworks

Tom Loveridge began his career in the fabrication field at the young age of 15, leaving school to start his apprenticeship at a local sheet metal company completing his Certificate III in Engineering (Sheetmetal). As an experienced tradesman, Tom has demonstrated a great commitment to training and building up apprentices over the past two decades. He has mentored several apprentices in the past, and in the last 12 months, he has been able to employ apprentices directly himself. Tom is committed to providing a positive and encouraging work environment for his apprentices where they feel comfortable to learn, feel safe to ask questions and have the ability to grow. Tom's is extremely passionate about ensuring the tricks of the trade are taught correctly to ensure quality output and the longevity of his industry.

SCHOOL-BASED APPRENTICE / TRAINEE OF THE YEAR

This award is presented to a student who is undertaking a Certificate II or above qualification as a School-Based Apprentice/Trainee. The Award recognises the student's commitment to their formal studies at school and the workplace.

THE FINALISTS ARE

LILLY BRIGHT | Certificate III in Allied Health Assistance

Host Business: NTG - Department of Health, Katherine Hospital
RTO: CDU

Lilly Bright had always been interested in the healthcare field. Lilly has plans to pursue a degree in medicine once she completes Year 12. Undertaking a school-based traineeship was a fundamental first step for Lilly, as it gave her valuable insight and practical experience within the healthcare industry. Working at Katherine Hospital, Lilly gained first hand experience about the hospital's day-to-day operations and seen how clinicians work together to provide quality care. Lilly is able to use her perspective as a hearing aid user to support empathetic and people focused care. Lilly has successfully completed her training and has been able to apply the acquired skills in her workplace.

COBY GOODY | Certificate III in Carpentry

Host Business: M&J Builders | RTO: HIA

Coby Goody commenced as a school-based carpentry apprentice before transitioning to being full-time. Coby pursued carpentry as he enjoys the practicality of hands-on learning and had been building things since he was young. Working as a carpenter has positively impacted Coby both on and off the job by giving him a variety of skills while growing both his professional and personal networks. Coby believes that working in a team environment is better for learning and makes the time spent at work more enjoyable. Coby recommends anyone undertaking apprenticeship approach it with an eagerness to learn and to build their skill-set to make for a positive experience.

HAILEE LEATHER | Certificate III in Business

Host Business: NTG - Department of Corporate & Digital Development
RTO: Dovaston Training and Assessment Centre

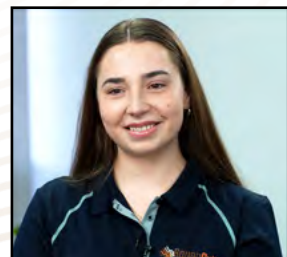

Hailee Leather enrolled in a school-based traineeship during Year 10 as she was uncertain about her career path and not yet sure if she wanted to attend university after high school. Hailee was interested in the corporate sector which was inspired by her work experience at Girraween Primary School. Hailee found a good balance between completing her school and VET assessments while working at the Northern Territory Government. Hailee's workplace supported her studies and allowed her to incorporate her assessment activities into her daily work tasks. Hailee is grateful for the support of her supervisor and colleagues, and the opportunity to broaden her knowledge and skills.

BIANCA SCHULTZ | Certificate III in Business

Host Business: NTG - Department of Health, Katherine Mental Health & AOD Service | RTO: Dovaston Training and Assessment Centre

Bianca Schultz pursued a career in business after completing her Certificate II in Business. She applied for traineeships during Year 11 to gain valuable workplace experience before graduating. During Year 12, Bianca enrolled in a school-based traineeship and gained her Certificate III in Business. The Katherine Mental Health & AOD Service supported her throughout her training, giving her insight into work environments and mental health support services. Bianca recommends traineeships as a great opportunity to gain new skills and insights into different fields.

ABORIGINAL & TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER APPRENTICE/TRAINEE OF THE YEAR

THE FINALISTS ARE

PORSCHÉ CAHILL | Certificate III in Laboratory Skills

Host Business: Menzies School of Health Research

RTO: ABC Training and Consulting

Porsche Cahill was curious about the role of scientists in the healthcare industry, which led her to pursue further education in the field. This traineeship changed her perspective on healthcare and gave her valuable opportunities to travel and network with other healthcare professionals. Porsche now works in the Ramaciotti Regional and Remote Health Sciences Training Centre, where she values the relationships she has developed with her colleagues and strives to create a welcoming environment for all. Her positive attitude and consideration for others make her a valuable asset to the Menzies community.

IESHA COUZENS | Certificate III in Business

Host Business: Kinetic IT | RTO: CDU

Ilesha Couzens says that her business traineeship in the ICT industry has allowed her to develop strong customer service and communication skills, gain proficiency with various software products, and provide quality administrative support to Kinetic IT Managers and customers. Ilesha values the relationships she has formed and is grateful for the opportunity to improve her skills in a supportive environment. This traineeship has opened doors and provided her with a foundation for future roles. Ilesha wants to be role model for students struggling with mental health, while demonstrating career options for school leavers.

ROYCE RAMSAMY | Certificate III in Laboratory Skills

Host Business: Menzies School of Health Research

RTO: ABC Training and Consulting

Royce Ramsamy chose to make the most of his gap year with a traineeship. He has gained new skills within a laboratory-based environment while also gaining community-based skills through volunteering opportunities. Royce has formed new friendships and found a workplace that is accepting and supportive, leading him to hope to return as an employee in the future. Royce describes the quality of his training as superb, with supportive staff and trainers who were willing to help with any problems. Overall, his traineeship has provided him with a strong foundation to pursue his future path towards university.

SHENEA TIPUNGWUTI-EDWARDS | Certificate III in Laboratory Skills

Host Business: Menzies School of Health Research

RTO: ABC Training and Consulting

Shenea Tipungwuti-Edwards graduated from high school in 2021 and decided to pursue a traineeship to gain hands-on experience and exposure to various health disciplines. With a longstanding interest in health and microorganisms, Shenea was grateful for the opportunity to work within the Biyamarr Ma program with like-minded colleagues in the melioidosis team. She gained insight into the impact of the bacteria on the body and through her traineeship, Shenea has been able to contribute to health promotion and community outreach efforts in addition to lab work. The experience motivate her to further her knowledge and study biomedical science at university.

TRAINEE OF THE YEAR

This award is presented to a Trainee who has performed exceptionally well in all aspects of their training.

THE FINALISTS ARE

RHEECE DAVIES-SMITH | Certificate III in Business

Host Business: GTNT Group | RTO: Institute of Skills & Training Australia
Rheece Davies-Smith decided to pursue a business traineeship to improve his skills, gain a qualification and enhance his employability within the industry. In completing his qualification Rheece secured an internal position within GTNT Group, a company he values for its opportunities for growth. Rheece believes that his studies have given him a broader perspective on his job and motivated him to ensure the best possible standard of work. He is continuing his education and recently commenced a Certificate III in Information Technology. Rheece sees the Certificate III in Business as an excellent foundation and is grateful for the support he received throughout his training.

DIANNA LEE | Certificate IV in Project Management

Host Business: INPEX | RTO: CDU
Dianna Lee views her decision to take up a traineeship as one of the best for her professional growth and development. It has provided her with hands-on experience in corporate services within the energy industry, confirming that this is the career path she wishes to pursue. Upon completion of the Certificate IV Project Management, Dianna intends to pursue a Diploma in Project Management. Dianna has improved her knowledge, skills, and techniques to a higher standard, which enables her to manage projects successfully from start to finish while understanding the structure, process, and procedures.

HANNAH LO | Certificate III in Business

Host Business: GTNT Group | RTO: Institute of Skills & Training Australia

Hannah Lo was uncertain about her career path after finishing school, so she decided to undertake a traineeship to avoid committing to a long-term university degree. Hannah enrolled in the Certificate III in Business believing it would equip her with essential skills that could lead to many career options. Throughout the traineeship, she gained valuable skills such as problem-solving, leadership, communication, time management, and networking, which improved her performance and positively contributed to her team. She is grateful for the opportunity to work and grow within the GTNT Group Employment Services Department.

MITZI NALZARO | Certificate III in Business

Host Business: Nilsen (NT) Pty Ltd | RTO: Institute of Skills & Training Australia

Mitzi Nalzaró enrolled in the Certificate III in Business qualification to pursue a career as an administrator. With no prior experience in the industry, she believed that a traineeship would provide the essential training to achieve her career goals. After completing the course her Host Business offered her a full-time Service Administrator role, which has allowed her to learn new procedures and tasks to improve the company's performance. The training has enhanced her communication, time management, and stress management skills, which have positively impacted her productivity and willingness to learn.

APPRENTICE OF THE YEAR

This award is presented to a Final Year Apprentice who has performed exceptionally well in all aspects of their training.

THE FINALISTS ARE

DAVID BRUCE | Certificate III in Electrotechnology Electrician Host Business: Nilsen (NT) Pty Ltd | RTO: CDU

David Bruce was passionate about pursuing a career as an electrician, and he believed that completing an apprenticeship was the best way to achieve his goal. In 2020, he registered his interest and was accepted for a position in July of the same year. David was offered a place with his Host Business and was employed by them directly upon completion of his training in December 2022. Despite the challenges of balancing work and home life, David found that the support provided by GTNT Group and Nilsen NT made his apprenticeship much more manageable. He is excited to use his new qualification to progress in his career.

SHANE GREENING | Certificate III in Heavy Commercial Vehicle Mechanical Technology | Host Business: RK Diesel Services | RTO: CDU

Shane Greening approached RK Diesel Services for an apprenticeship in 2019 after his mother told him he would have to start an apprenticeship if he didn't want to continue with school. Despite not enjoying school, Shane found the apprenticeship to be a perfect fit since he could work and learn at the same time. He had a strong interest in motor sports and had been competing in Speedway since he was 10 years old. With his father being a Diesel Mechanic, Shane was able to build his skills and knowledge from an early age. Shane won the 2021 GTNT Group Outstanding Apprentice - Stage 1 Award and was also a finalist in 2022 for Stage 2. Shane completed his apprenticeship early at the age of 18.

JACK HIGGINS | Certificate III in Electrotechnology Electrician Host Business: AJF Electrical | RTO: CDU

Jack Higgins was unsure about his career path after finishing high school. Jack applied for the Shell Prelude to the Future program and was thrilled to be accepted. During the program, Jack gained valuable knowledge and practical experience and through the program discovered his passion for the electrical industry. After completing Jack continued to pursue an electrical apprenticeship. Working in the industry has been rewarding for Jack as it has provided the opportunity to see more of the Territory including remote trips to Elcho Island and Bathurst Island. He has learned valuable life lessons and believes that "learning a trade is like building a house - it takes time and focus to achieve something extraordinary."

BRIANNA MCSWEENEY | Certificate III in Electrotechnology Electrician Host Business: Territory Generation | RTO: CDU

Brianna McSweeney's interest in the electrical industry began during her Year 12 when she attended an open day at the power station. While she had initially been accepted into an Electrical Engineering degree, Brianna opted for an electrical apprenticeship. During her apprenticeship, she had the opportunity to work with various tradespeople and engineers to troubleshoot issues, review and design new projects, and gain a better understanding of the systems used throughout the station. She even enrolled in Instrumentation during her fourth year and is set to finish this August, making her a dual qualified tradesperson. Brianna won the 2022 GTNT Group Outstanding Apprentice - Stage 3 Award and 2022 NAWIC NT Apprentice of the Year Award.

GTNT GROUP

Creating Territory Futures through Apprenticeships

GTNT Group has been in operation since 1989 providing employment and training solutions to Northern Territory employers and community and is the Northern Territory's largest employer of apprentices and trainees. We have been providing our services to over 6,500 apprentices and trainees, and partnering with over 1,500 Host Businesses across the Territory. GTNT Group has a strong focus on apprenticeships solutions through employment, training, recruitment, community and corporate solutions to a diverse range of industries and stakeholders. Our GTNT Foundation provides fully funded wages and training for displaced apprentices and trainees across the Northern Territory. Each year a number of disadvantaged apprentices and trainees from remote communities are funded to be able to attend local awards ceremonies and special training programs.

GTNT Group operates several business divisions such as the Australian Apprenticeship Support Network NT, GTO - Employment Services, The Meeting Place by GTNT Group, Institute of Skills and Training Australia (RTO Code: 0381) and we partner with Pearson Australia to operate the first Pearson VUE Test Centre in the Northern Territory.
